- The Rector reminds parent parishioners, who want Primary/Secondary School forms signed/references written, that he only deals with these matters after church services on a Sunday. (These forms come at him via a whole myriad of directions, locations and methods!). Please also note that he can only deal with such forms if the family concerned are actually members of the Parish, i.e. registered or on the parish lists, be that as a resident or accustomed member.
In relation to the Rector witnessing passport applications for children, note that both parents must be present for these signings. Just make contact to arrange a mutually suitable time.
